IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD

Oresbyterian

The Presbyterian churches of the world have been organized since 187 into a body the Monument Grounds on Sunday at 16 known as "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System." There are about ninety national and denominational churches in the council, having a total constituency of about 30,000,000. The strongest churches are located in Grest Britain and in the United States. There are Presbyterian churches in india, Japan, China, Persia and Syris. On the Continent of Europe the strongest church is the Reformed Church of Hungary, the Reformed Church of Hungary and the Reformed Church Third and I Streets Northwest at which the address was made by Dr.

On Thursday evening next the Stuart Mission Band, a missionary society of young people, will hold their annual meeting. These societies have contributed very largely to the work of missions of this church and have enabled the Central Church to give H per capita to foreign missions during the past year. On Sunday morning Rev. W. C. Buchanan, a missionary of the Southern Presbyterian Church in Japan, and a brother of Dr. J. C. Buchanan, of this city, will speak of the work and progress of missons who have had the plantage. speak of the work and progress of mis-sions in Japan. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. Gib-bon has not figured prominently in the ecclesiastical sphere, but his devotion to his books and his point has made him one of the most successful and popular factors in London. He is familiar with the best literature, and his own writings are marked by peculiar charm. British Weekly says: "At any time during the last years Mr. Gibbon might have worthly occupied the chair, but it is especially fit that he should hold it now, when the long fight against reli gious privilege in Wales is at its crisis and nearing the end."

There was quite a representation of our clergy at the commencement of the Bliss School at Carroll Institute Hail on Wednesday night last. Rev. T. Hubert Jones, of the Church of the Epiphany, opened the proceedings with prayer, after which he was obliged to leave. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. Herbert Reese, curate of St. Thomas' of meeting either in this country or whose ordination to the priesthood last abroad Rev. J. Morgan Gibbon, pastor of Sunday qualified him for that service. And at the banquet which followed, the popular rector of the Church of the As-cension, Rev. Canon Nelms, was one of the chosen speakers.

The vestry of old St. Peter's Parish, Poolesville, Montgomery County, Md., is again making an effort to recover damages from the government for the de-struction of its church by the Federal soldiers during the civil war.

The first step was taken on Tuesday last, when Congressman Lewis of Mary-land introduced a bill for the relief of the parish. One thousand dollars is the the parish. One thousand dollars is the amount claimed.

In connection with this new effort there is an interesting story. Years ago EPIPHANY CHAPEL, inthe and C sta. sw. Res. Congressman Pearre tried to recover Charles F. Edwards, vicar. Services, II a. m. and damages for St. Peter's, but without sp. m. Then the records invateriously disappeared and nothing could be done.

The warden of St. Stephen's College Annandale, N. Y., Rev. William C. Rodgers, D. D., was the preacher of Rodgers, D. D., was the preacher of the sermon last Sunday at the ordination of Rev. Harry Garner to the diaconate (not priesthood as reported), and of Revs. Edward S. Hale and C. Herbert Reese to the priesthood (not diaconate as reported).

At Maryland Avenue Baptist Church, Fourteenth Street and Maryland Avenue Northeast, the Sunday school and church services to-morrow morning will be completed into a celebration of Children's College, a fact which lent additional interest to the preacher's presence and words of exhortation. Mr. Beese was presented by Archdeacon the services to the preacher's presence and words of exhortation. Mr. Reese was presented by Archdeacon the services to the preacher of the sermon last Sunday at the ordination of Revs. Harry Garner to the diaconate (not priesthood as reported).

Library from Brentano's

Those "booklovers" who love books ahead of all other affection consider the third prize in this contest as the first.

A library, selected by the highest authority in the leading book shop in the world, is a gift that those who worship at the literary shrines call "adorable," and one that whets the craving of those who are in the earlier stages of the thirst for higher knowledge.

Of course, the winner of this prize will have full opportunity to consult with the Brentano management in the interest of final amendment to suit his or her taste. As the selection stands now, not a volume that would injure the thinking of a twelve-year-old girl has been permitted. The library has an actual cash value of $500, and will be exhibited at Brentano's, 12th and F Streets Northwest.

$250 in Cash Prizes

14th to 33d Prizes...... $5 books. 34th to 83d Prizes...... $1 books.

The Citizens' Savings Bank, located in the Bond Building, at 1406 New York Avenue, holds on deposit the sum of $250, subject to the order of The Washington Herald Company, who will present it to those contestants who are designated by the examining committee which is to sit in final judgment on the answers

The bank will issue the money in the shape of "savings deposits," on which its regular interest will be paid. Those who incline to thrift will find that bank an ideal one for all that comes to the needs of individual or family.
